

THE CALL FOR MILITIA.

Departure of Seventh, Eighth and Seventy-first Regiments.

Several Regiments to Leave To-Day.

ACTIVITY OF THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES.

GOV. SEYMOUR TO ARRIVE IN THIS CITY TO-DAY,

do. do. do.

The excitement among our city militia yesterday did not lag in any particular, as each regiment expected to be shortly ordered on the march to Pennsylvania. The different armories were thronged during the day, and officers and men hurried hither and thither, the expectancy of again being hurried into an exciting and somewhat arduous campaign. As a matter of course, patriotic feeling was most exuberant, and the rebel raid was freely causticized in all its bearings by the military in general. This second threatened invasion of our territory by a rebel army has imparted a most enthusiastic feeling to the hearts of our citizens, and when these militia regiments have the city there is no doubt that they will do so with full ranks.

The only regiments which left yesterday were the Seventh, Eighth and Seventy-first. The causes of delay experienced by the other regiments are various. There is, or at least there was, a hitch experienced in the procuring of equipments, the Secretary of War, it appears, having determined not to furnish any of the regiments with the same until they arrive in the field. This is no time to throw obstacles in the way of the departure of those troops. The e can now be provided from the Quartermaster General's office in this city uniforms and equipments for ten thousand men, and there can be no excuse given for the holding back of these articles. The commanding officers of the regiments assert that they cannot take their men from the city until they are fully provided with all that they require. The Quartermaster General's office in Walker Hall, however, is still engaged in the process of requisitioning for clothing and other articles, but there has been no authority in that department to issue them without sanction from the general government, they were informed of that fact, and had to go away, remarking that if the government would see fit to say so, it could do so with necessary equipments.

General Hall and Sandford received a telegraphic despatch from Governor Seymour yesterday to meet him at the St. Nicholas Hotel last night, and the purpose of his coming was to ascertain the departure of the regiments from this city. At the hour appointed the Generals were at the St. Nicholas Hotel. A despatch had been addressed to General Sandford and received at half past three o'clock, by Governor Seymour authorizing him to draw for all the men required by the regiments, and that he could do so with necessary equipments.

General Hall and Sandford received a telegraphic despatch from Governor Seymour yesterday to meet him at the St. Nicholas Hotel last night, and the purpose of his coming was to ascertain the departure of the regiments from this city. At the hour appointed the Generals were at the St. Nicholas Hotel. A despatch had been addressed to General Sandford and received at half past three o'clock, by Governor Seymour authorizing him to draw for all the men required by the regiments, and that he could do so with necessary equipments.

The following orders have been issued by the Colonel of this regiment:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, FOURTH REGIMENT, N. Y. N. G.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

In compliance with division and brigade orders, this command, in full fatigue dress, will proceed to Hagerstown, Maryland, on Friday next, not exceeding thirty days. The time of departure will be named in orders to be issued to-morrow. Commandants of companies will receive their respective orders at the head-quarters of their regiments, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for a wagon street, for the horses and equipments. By order of DANIEL W. TELLER, Colonel Commanding.

The following order has been issued by the Colonel of this regiment:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 10.
HEADQUARTERS, TWELFTH REGIMENT, N. Y. N. G.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

Pursuant to General Orders No. 4, from division headquarters, this regiment will assemble in fatigue dress, fully armed and equipped, at the head-quarters of its command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for a wagon street, for the horses and equipments. By order of

E. L. LARIBEE, Adjutant.

The following order has been issued by the Colonel of this regiment:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 11.
HEADQUARTERS, TWELFTH REGIMENT N. Y. S. M.,
INDEPENDENCE GUARD,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

Pursuant to orders from the Commander-in-Chief and Divisional Brigadier General, this command is hereby ordered to assemble in full fatigue dress, at the head-quarters of its command, on Friday, 19th instant, at 5 A. M., for a period of service not to exceed thirty days.

Commandants of companies will assemble their commands on Thursday, 18th instant, at the regimental armory, to receive uniforms and equipments, as follows:

1. Companies A, F, H, K and C, the afternoon, from 1 P. M. to 4 P. M.

2. Commandants of companies will report in person to the Colonel at headquarters this evening, 17th instant, at eight P. M. to receive their respective uniforms and equipments. The Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the equipment of their commands.

3. Volunteers will be received to fill up the companies. Companies will use due care in their selection.

4. Particular attention is called to the fact as announced by Major General Sandford that this is the last call for service, and that the pension presented by law will be strictly enforced.

By order of Colonel E. L. LARIBEE, First Lieutenant and Adjutant.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

Troops for the State are arriving rapidly.

A despatch has been received from Gotysburg to the effect that a resident of the southern part of Franklin county states that Ewell was in Hagerstown this morning. Another states that he was in Green castle this morning, and has with him a large body of infantry.

Reliable information has reached here that the rebels are now in force at Cumberland, Maryland.

A company of colored men arrived this evening from Philadelphia, whose services were declined by Major General Couch, on the ground that no authority had been granted by the War Department for the muster of colored troops into the service of the United States for a less period than three years.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

The regiment will assemble at Regiments Headquarters, prepared to march forth with the rest of the command, at half past seven o'clock A. M. precisely, the number of artillery men, drivers, horses, mules, wagons, teams, drivers, horses, mules and teams required for their respective commands; and the Quartermaster will make requisition on the Quartermaster General for the horses and equipments.

Information was received by the authorities late to-night that Imboden was at Cumberland with two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry with artillery. Wheeling may be their destination.

The following order has been issued by Colonel Aspinwall:

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 21.
HEADQUARTERS, TWENTY-SECOND N. G. S. N. Y.,
NEW YORK, June 17, 1863.

<div data-bbox="25 1082 179 1099" data